

The following is a summary of the terms of the notes offered by the preliminary pricing supplement hyperlinked below.

Summary of Terms

Issuer: JPMorgan Chase Financial Company LLC
Guarantor: JPMorgan Chase & Co.
Minimum Denomination: $1,000
Fund: SPDR® S&P® Bank ETF
Pricing Date: September 27, 2022
Observation Date: December 27, 2023
Maturity Date: January 2, 2024
Contingent Digital Return: At least 14.00%*
Barrier Amount: 80.00% of the Initial Value
Payment At Maturity:

If the Final Value is greater than or equal to the Barrier Amount, your payment at maturity per $1,000 principal amount note will be calculated as follows:

$$$1,000 + ($1,000 \times \text{Contingent Digital Return})$$

If the Final Value is less than the Barrier Amount, your payment at maturity per $1,000 principal amount note will be calculated as follows:

$$$1,000 + ($1,000 \times \text{Fund Return})$$

If the Final Value is less than the Barrier Amount, you will lose more than 20.00% of your principal amount at maturity and could lose all of your principal amount at maturity.

CUSIP: 48133M5F3

Estimated Value: The estimated value of the notes, when the terms of the notes are set, will not be less than $900.00 per $1,000 principal amount note. For information about the estimated value of the notes, which likely will be lower than the price you paid for the notes, please see the hyperlink above.

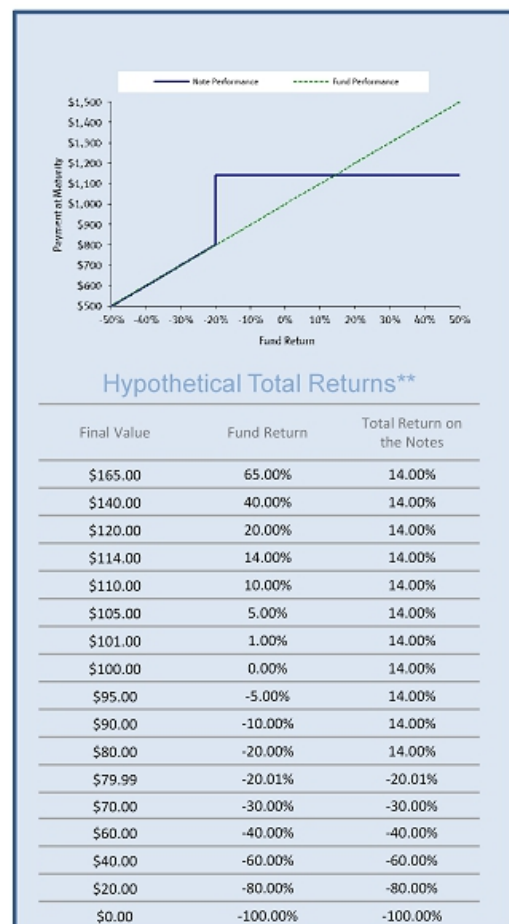

Any payment on the notes is subject to the credit risk of JPMorgan Chase Financial Company LLC, as issuer of the notes, and the credit risk of JPMorgan Chase & Co., as guarantor of the notes.

* The actual Contingent Digital Return will be provided in the pricing supplement and will not be less than 14.00%

**Reflects Contingent Digital Return equal to the minimum Contingent Digital Return set forth herein, for illustrative purposes.

The "total return" as used above is the number, expressed as a percentage, that results from comparing the payment at maturity per $1,000 principal amount note to $1,000.

The hypothetical returns shown above apply only at maturity. These hypotheticals do not reflect fees or expenses that would be associated with any sale in the secondary market. If these fees and expenses were included, the hypothetical returns shown above would likely be lower.

15m KBE Digital Barrier Notes

Selected Risks

- Your investment in the notes may result in a loss. The notes do not guarantee any return of principal.
- Your maximum gain on the notes is limited to the Contingent Digital Return.
- Your ability to receive the Contingent Digital Return may terminate on the Observation Date.
- Any payment on the notes is subject to the credit risks of JPMorgan Chase Financial Company LLC and JPMorgan Chase & Co. Therefore the value of the notes prior to maturity will be subject to changes in the market's view of the creditworthiness of JPMorgan Chase Financial Company LLC or JPMorgan Chase & Co.
- The benefit provided by the Barrier Amount may terminate on the Observation Date.
- No interest payments, dividend payments or voting rights.
- JPMorgan Chase & Co. is currently one of the companies that make up the Fund and its underlying index.
- The Fund is subject to management risk.
- The performance and market value of the Fund, particularly during periods of market volatility, may not correlate with the performance of the Fund's underlying index as well as the net asset value per share.
- The notes are subject to risks associated with the banking industry.
- The anti-dilution protection for the Fund is limited.
- As a finance subsidiary, JPMorgan Chase Financial Company LLC has no independent operations and has limited assets.

Selected Risks (continued)

- The estimated value of the notes will be lower than the original issue price (price to public) of the notes.
- The estimated value of the notes is determined by reference to an internal funding rate.
- The estimated value of the notes does not represent future values and may differ from others' estimates.
- The value of the notes, which may be reflected in customer account statements, may be higher than the then current estimated value of the notes for a limited time period.
- Lack of liquidity: J.P. Morgan Securities LLC (who we refer to as JPMS) intends to offer to purchase the notes in the secondary market but is not required to do so. The price, if any, at which JPMS will be willing to purchase notes from you in the secondary market, if at all, may result in a significant loss of your principal.
- Potential conflicts: We and our affiliates play a variety of roles in connection with the issuance of notes, including acting as calculation agent and hedging our obligations under the notes, and making the assumptions used to determine the pricing of the notes and the estimated value of the notes when the terms of the notes are set. It is possible that such hedging or other trading activities of J.P. Morgan or its affiliates could result in substantial returns for J.P. Morgan and its affiliates while the value of the notes decline.
- The tax consequences of the notes may be uncertain. You should consult your tax adviser regarding the U.S. federal income tax consequences of an investment in the notes.

The risks identified above are not exhaustive. Please see "Risk Factors" in the prospectus supplement and the applicable product supplement and underlying supplement and "Selected Risk Considerations" in the applicable preliminary pricing supplement for additional information.
