The following is a summary of the terms of the notes offered by the preliminary pricing supplement highlighted below.

Summary of Terms

Issuer: JPMorgan Chase Financial Company LLC
Guarantor: JPMorgan Chase & Co.
Minimum Denomination: $1,000
Underlying: S&P 500 Index
Pricing Date: July 21, 2023
Observation Date: December 6, 2024
Maturity Date: December 10, 2024
Maximum Upside Return: At least 15.00%
Buffer Amount: 10.00%
Payment at Maturity: If the Final Value is greater than the Initial Value, your payment at maturity per $1,000 principal amount note will be calculated as follows:

subject to the Maximum Upside Return.

If the Final Value is equal to the Initial Value or is less than the Initial Value by up to the Buffer Amount, your payment at maturity per $1,000 principal amount note will be calculated as follows:

subject to the Maximum Upside Return.

This payout formula results in an effective cap of 15.00% on your return at maturity if the Underlying Return is negative. Under these limited circumstances, your maximum payment at maturity is $1,150.00 per $1,000 principal amount note.

If the Final Value is less than the Initial Value by more than the Buffer Amount, your payment at maturity per $1,000 principal amount note will be calculated as follows:

subject to the Maximum Upside Return.

Estimated Value: The estimated value of the notes, when the terms of the notes are set, will not be less than $960.00 per $1,000 principal amount note. For information about the estimated value of the notes, which likely will be lower than the price you paid for the notes, see the hypertext above.

* The actual Maximum Upside Return will be provided in the pricing supplement and will not be less than 15.00%.

 Reflects Maximum Upside Return equal to the minimum set forth herein, for illustrative purposes.

Any payment on the notes is subject to the credit risk of JPMorgan Chase Financial Company LLC, as issuer of the notes and the credit risk of JPMorgan Chase & Co., as guarantor of the notes.

The "total return" as used above is the number, expressed as a percentage, that results from comparing the payment at maturity per $1,000 principal amount note to $1,000.

- The hypothetical returns on the notes shown above apply only at maturity. These hypotheticals do not reflect fees or expenses that would be associated with any sale in the secondary market. If these fees and expenses were included, the hypothetical returns shown above would likely be lower.

Selected Risks

• Your investment in the notes may result in a loss. The notes do not guarantee any return of principal.
• Your maximum gain on the notes is limited by the Maximum Upside Return if the Underlying Return is positive.
• Your maximum gain on the notes is limited by the Buffer Amount if the Underlying Return is negative.
• Any payment on the notes is subject to the credit risks of JPMorgan Chase Financial Company LLC and JPMorgan Chase & Co. Therefore the value of the notes prior to maturity will be subject to changes in the market’s view of the creditworthiness of JPMorgan Chase Financial Company LLC or JPMorgan Chase & Co.
• No dividend payments, dividend payments or voting rights.
• As a finance subsidiary, JPMorgan Chase Financial Company LLC has no independent operations and has limited assets.
• JPMorgan Chase & Co. is currently one of the companies that make up the S&P 500® Index.

• The estimated value of the notes will be lower than the original issue price (price to public) of the notes.
• The estimated value of the notes is determined by reference to an internal funding rate.
• The estimated value of the notes does not represent future values and may differ from others’ estimates.
• The value of the notes, which may be reflected in customer account statements, may be higher than the then current estimated value of the notes for a limited time period.
• Lack of liquidity. JPMorgan Securities LLC (who refer to us as JPMorgan) intends to offer to purchase the notes in the secondary market but is not required to do so. This price, if any, at which JPMorgan will be willing to purchase notes from you in the secondary market, if at all, may result in a significant loss of your principal.
• Potential conflicts: We and our affiliates play a variety of roles in connection with the issuance of notes, including acting as underwriting agent and hedging our obligations under the notes, and making the assumptions used to determine the pricing of the notes and the estimated value of the notes when the terms of the notes are set. It is possible that such hedging or other trading activities of JPMorgan or its affiliates could result in substantial returns for JPMorgan and its affiliates while the value of the notes declines.
• The tax consequences of the notes may be uncertain. You should consult your tax adviser regarding the U.S. federal income tax consequences of an investment in the notes.

The risks identified above are not exhaustive. Please see “Risks Factors” in the prospectus supplement and the applicable preliminary pricing supplement and underlying supplement and “Selected Risk Considerations” in the applicable preliminary pricing supplement for additional information.
