ITEM 5. OTHER EVENTS

J.P. Morgan Chase & Co. announced fourth quarter 2000 operating earnings per share (before special items) of $0.37, compared with $1.09 in the fourth quarter of 1999. Operating income was $763 million, compared with $2.18 billion in the prior year. Reported net income, which includes special items, was $708 million, or $0.34 per share in the 2000 fourth quarter, compared with $2.20 billion, or $1.10 per share, in the 1999 fourth quarter. Special items include a merger-related charge of $1.25 billion, offset by non-recurring gains of $1.23 billion.

For the full year 2000, operating earnings per share were $2.96, compared with $3.65 in 1999. Operating income was $5.93 billion, compared with $7.43 billion in 1999. Reported net income was $5.73 billion, or $2.86 per share, compared with $7.50 billion, or $3.69 per share, in 1999.

The press release contains statements that are forward-looking within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Such statements are based upon the current beliefs and expectations of J.P. Morgan Chase's management and are subject to significant risks and uncertainties. Actual results may differ from those set forth in the forward-looking statements. These uncertainties include: the risk that the businesses of Chase and J.P. Morgan will not be integrated successfully; the risk that the revenue synergies and cost savings anticipated from the merger may not be fully realized or may take longer to realize than expected; the risk that the integration process may result in the disruption of ongoing business or in the loss of key employees or may adversely affect relationships with employees, clients or suppliers; the risks of adverse movements or volatility in the securities markets or in interest or foreign exchange rates or indices; the risk of adverse impacts from an economic downturn; the risk of a downturn in domestic or foreign securities and trading conditions or markets; the risks associated with increased competition; the risks associated with unfavorable political and diplomatic developments in foreign markets or adverse changes in domestic or foreign governmental or regulatory policies; or other factors impacting operational plans. Additional factors that could cause J.P. Morgan Chase's results to differ materially from those described in the forward-looking statements can be found in the 1999 Annual Reports on Form 10-K of J.P. Morgan Chase & Co. (formerly known as The Chase Manhattan Corporation) filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission and available at the Securities and Exchange Commission's internet site (<http://www.sec.gov>).

J.P. MORGAN CHASE REPORTS FOURTH QUARTER

AND FULL YEAR 2000 RESULTS

NEW YORK, JANUARY 17, 2001 - J.P. Morgan Chase & Co. (NYSE: JPM) today announced fourth quarter 2000 operating earnings per share (before special items) of $0.37, compared with $1.09 in the fourth quarter of 1999. Operating income was $763 million, compared with $2.18 billion in the prior year. Reported net income, which includes special items, was $708 million, or $0.34 per share in the most recent quarter, compared with $2.20 billion, or $1.10 per share, in the 1999 quarter. Special items include a merger-related charge of $1.25 billion, offset by non-recurring gains of $1.23 billion.

For the full year 2000, operating earnings per share were $2.96, compared with $3.65 in 1999. Operating income was $5.93 billion, compared with $7.43 billion in 1999. Reported net income was $5.73 billion, or $2.86 per share, compared with $7.50 billion, or $3.69 per share, in 1999.

The annualized cash operating return on common equity was 9.1% for the fourth quarter and 17.6% for the full year 2000. See the Financial Highlights exhibit for consolidated results on a cash basis.

Results for all periods give effect to the merger of The Chase Manhattan Corporation and J.P. Morgan & Co. on December 31, 2000.

HIGHLIGHTS FOR THE FOURTH QUARTER AND FULL YEAR 2000

- - Total operating revenues excluding private equity (J.P. Morgan Partners) rose 10% for the fourth quarter and 12% for the full year over the comparable 1999 periods.
- - J.P. Morgan Partners had negative fourth quarter private equity revenues of $92 million because of unrealized write-downs, primarily in Nasdaq-listed public securities.
- - Investment Management & Private Banking, Treasury & Securities Services, and Retail & Middle Market Banking each posted solid fourth quarter and full year results.
- - Total operating expenses were 24% and 20% higher for the fourth quarter and full year 2000, respectively. The increases reflect the buildup of the investment banking platform, which is not expected to continue at a comparable rate in 2001.
- - Market and credit risk measures remained stable. Non-performing assets of $1.92 billion at the end of 2000 were down slightly from September 30, 2000; commercial charge-offs increased by $76 million from the third quarter.

"Last year was a watershed that culminated in the closing of our merger ahead of schedule," said William B. Harrison, Jr., Chief Executive Officer. "While results were depressed by a challenging market environment and significant investment in our wholesale franchise, the pieces of our platform are now in place. The integration is on track, and with reasonably cooperative financial markets we should see a meaningful rebound in profitability this year. We have set as long-term goals for the company annual revenue growth of 10% to 12%, cash earnings per share growth of 15% per year, and an average cash return on equity of 20% to 25%."

BUSINESS SEGMENT RESULTS

INVESTMENT BANKING operating revenues were $3.67 billion in the fourth quarter of 2000, up 20% from the prior year's quarter. Investment banking fees rose to $1.05 billion, led by strong growth in advisory fees and the benefit of the acquisition of Hambrecht and Quist (H&Q) and Robert Fleming Holdings (Fleming). Trading revenues (including related net interest income) of $1.27 billion were down from $1.48 billion in the 1999 quarter, primarily due to the impact of widening credit spreads on results in emerging markets and North American credit markets. Fees and commissions of $448 million were up 54% from the 1999 quarter, reflecting higher equity brokerage commissions and the benefit of the H&Q and Fleming acquisitions. Securities gains compared favorably with the 1999 quarter, which saw substantial losses on the sale of U.S. government agency securities.

For the full year, operating revenues rose 16% to $15.75 billion. Investment banking fees were up 23% to a record $4.29 billion, driven by gains in both advisory and underwriting revenues and the inclusion of H&Q and Fleming. Trading revenues (including related net interest income) rose 3% to $6.67 billion on strength in equity derivatives, partially offset by lower results in emerging markets.

Cash operating expenses for Investment Banking rose 37% in the fourth quarter and 29% for the year. The increases in expenses were primarily due to the build-out of the investment banking platform and the inclusion of Hambrecht & Quist and Flemings in the current periods, as well as higher variable costs driven by revenue growth.

Cash operating earnings of $528 million for the fourth quarter were down 9% from the prior-year quarter. For the full year 2000, cash operating earnings were $3.53 billion, flat with 1999.

TREASURY AND SECURITIES SERVICES operating revenues rose 9% to $907 million in the fourth quarter. Strong growth in Investor Services (custody) drove the increase, reflecting growth in net assets and new business, coupled with higher volumes.

Operating revenues for the full year 2000 were $3.55 billion, 12% ahead of 1999. Broad-based growth in Investor Services and higher Institutional Trust revenues led the increase.

Expenses rose more slowly than revenues, reflecting aggressive expense management in Treasury Services. Cash operating expenses rose 2% for the fourth quarter and 7% for the full year 2000, leading to significant margin improvements and earnings growth. Cash operating earnings of $182 million and $693 million were up 29% and 25% in the quarter and the full year, respectively.

INVESTMENT MANAGEMENT AND PRIVATE BANKING had operating revenues of $894 million in the fourth quarter, compared with $645 million in the 1999 quarter. The increase was largely due to the inclusion of revenues from Fleming and H&Q in the 2000 quarter. On a pro-forma basis, client acquisition and higher assets under management in private banking were offset by the impact of weak equity markets in investment management.

Full-year operating revenues were $3.30 billion, compared with $2.44 billion in 1999. Pro-forma for the acquisitions, private banking revenues were up, led by strong commission revenues and structuring fees in the first half of the year. Investment management revenues also saw double-digit growth on a pro-forma basis.

Cash operating expenses of $710 million for the quarter and $2.43 billion for the year also reflect the impact of Fleming and H&Q. Cash operating earnings were $125 million for the fourth quarter and $586 million for the year. On a pro-forma basis, cash operating earnings grew 12% in the quarter and 51% in the full year.

Assets under management within Investment Management and Private Banking stood at $638 billion as of December 31, 2000, up from $634 billion at the end of 1999. This excludes assets managed within other lines of business and assets attributable to the company's 45% stake in American Century.

J.P. MORGAN PARTNERS had private equity losses of $92 million in the fourth quarter, compared with gains of $1.62 billion in the fourth quarter of 1999. Included in the fourth quarter results were $373 million in realized cash gains from public and private positions, compared with $658 million during the fourth quarter of 1999.

Fourth quarter realized revenues were more than offset by a $465 million net decline in the unrealized value of the portfolio, primarily due to investments in the telecommunications and technology sectors. Despite this decline, the public equity portfolio maintains a quoted value of 2.7 times its original cost.

For the full year, private equity gains were $988 million, down from $3.14 billion in 1999. Realized cash gains were $2.04 billion, up from $1.68 billion in 1999. The change in the unrealized value of the portfolio during 2000 was negative $1.05 billion, compared with a $1.46 billion gain recorded in 1999.

RETAIL AND MIDDLE MARKET BANKING operating revenues were $2.56 billion, up 1% from the prior year's quarter. Cardmember Services revenues increased, despite the impact of higher funding costs, driven by growth in purchase volumes and fees and increased account acquisitions. Regional Banking revenues increased due to continued growth in deposit volumes. These positives were partially offset by the impact of the sales of operations in Hong Kong and Panama. Cash operating earnings for the fourth quarter rose 3% to $440 million and reflected continued improvement in credit quality.

Full year 2000 operating revenues rose 1% to $10.05 billion and cash operating earnings rose 3% to $1.73 billion. Solid growth in Regional Banking and Middle Market Banking was offset by the negative impact of higher funding costs on Cardmember Services, and by a one-time increase in auto lease residual losses in the first quarter of 2000. Credit quality in Cardmember Services improved significantly, adding to the positive result.

CREDIT RISK

Nonperforming assets as of December 31, 2000 were down slightly from the prior quarter at $1.92 billion. The allowance for loan losses as of December 31, 2000 was $3.67 billion, compared with $3.75 billion at the end of the third quarter. The reported provision for loan losses in the fourth quarter was $409 million, which equaled net loan charge-offs adjusted for the effect of securitizations and a non-recurring charge described below.

COMMERCIAL net charge-offs in the fourth quarter of 2000 were $159 million, down from $282 million in the 1999 fourth quarter. Charge-offs rose from $83 million in the third quarter, reflecting increased charge-offs in the foreign commercial portfolio.

CONSUMER charge-offs on a managed basis (i.e., including securitizations) were $495 million, not including a non-recurring charge of $93 million to conform to a recently issued regulatory policy establishing uniform guidelines for consumer loan charge-offs. Excluding this charge, consumer charge-offs were down 5% from the fourth quarter of 1999 and up 4% from the third quarter. On a managed basis, the credit card net charge-off ratio excluding the charge was 4.87%, down from 5.24% in the fourth quarter of 1999 and 4.97% in the third quarter of 2000.

TOTAL ASSETS AND CAPITAL

Total assets as of December 31, 2000 were $715 billion, compared with $707 billion as of September 30, 2000, and $667 billion as of December 31, 1999. J.P. Morgan Chase's Tier One capital ratio as of December 31, 2000 was 8.4%, compared with 8.1% as of September 30, 2000.

OTHER FINANCIAL INFORMATION

MERGER BETWEEN CHASE AND J.P. MORGAN: On December 31, 2000, The Chase Manhattan Corporation and J.P. Morgan & Co. Incorporated completed the merger of their holding companies. The merger was accounted for as a pooling of interests. As a result, all financial information presented here for the combined entity, J.P. Morgan Chase & Co., reflects the results of Chase and J.P. Morgan as if the merger had been in effect for all periods presented.

MERGER COSTS: Management estimates that the company will incur one-time, pre-tax costs of $3.2 billion related to the merger. The fourth quarter included a pre-tax charge of $1.25 billion, with the balance of the costs expected to be incurred during 2001 and 2002.

SALE OF CHASE'S HONG KONG RETAIL BANKING BUSINESS: During the fourth quarter of 2000 Chase completed the previously announced sale of its Hong-Kong-based retail banking business, including Chase Manhattan Card Company Limited, to Standard Chartered PLC for $1.3 billion in cash. The sale resulted in a pre-tax gain of $827 million ($537 million after tax)

TRANSFER OF EUROCLEAR-RELATED BUSINESSES: As previously announced, on December 31, 2000 a newly formed bank, Euroclear Bank, assumed operations of the Euroclear system from J.P. Morgan. The management and staff of Euroclear, comprising approximately 1,200 former J.P. Morgan employees, have become employees of the new entity. In connection with the transfer, a pre-tax gain of $399 million ($267 million after tax) was recorded in the fourth quarter.

J.P. Morgan Chase & Co. is a premier global financial services firm with assets of $715 billion and operations in over 60 countries. The firm is a leader in investment banking, asset management, private equity, consumer banking, private banking, e-finance, and custody and processing services. Headquartered in New York, J.P. Morgan Chase serves 32 million consumer customers and over 5,000 corporate, institutional, and government clients.

J.P. Morgan Chase will hold a presentation for the investment community on Wednesday, January 17, at 11:00 a.m. (Eastern Standard Time) to review fourth quarter and full year 2000 financial results, which are scheduled to be released early in the morning of January 17th. A live audio webcast of the presentation will be available on www.jpmorganchase.com. In addition, persons interested in listening to the presentation by telephone may dial in at (973) 872-3100.

This press release contains statements that are forward-looking within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Such statements are based upon the current beliefs and expectations of J.P. Morgan Chase's management and are subject to significant risks and uncertainties. Actual results may differ from those set forth in the forward-looking statements. These uncertainties include: the risk that the businesses of Chase and J.P. Morgan will not be integrated successfully; the risk that the revenue synergies and cost savings anticipated from the merger may not be fully realized or may take longer to realize than expected; the risk that the integration process may result in the disruption of ongoing business or in the loss of key employees or may adversely affect relationships with employees, clients or suppliers; the risks of adverse movements or volatility in the securities markets or in interest or foreign exchange rates or indices; the risk of adverse impacts from an economic downturn; the risk of a downturn in domestic or foreign securities and trading conditions or markets; the risks associated with increased competition; the risks associated with unfavorable political and diplomatic developments in foreign markets or adverse changes in domestic or foreign governmental or regulatory policies; or other factors impacting operational plans. Additional factors that could cause J.P. Morgan Chase's results to differ materially from those described in the forward-looking statements can be found in the 1999 Annual Reports on Form 10-K of The Chase Manhattan Corporation, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission and available at the Securities and Exchange Commission's internet site (<http://www.sec.gov>).

(a) Represents condensed results as reported in J.P. Morgan Chase's financial statements.

(b) This column excludes the impact of credit card securitizations. For securitized receivables, amounts that previously would have been reported as net interest income and as provision for loan losses are instead reported as components of noninterest revenue.

(c) Includes merger and restructuring costs and special items. The 2000 fourth quarter includes an $827 million gain on the sale of the Hong Kong retail banking business, a $399 million gain from the transfer of Euroclear related business, $52 million of restructuring costs associated with previously announced relocation initiatives ($181 million for the full year) and $1,250 million in merger expenses. Also included in the 2000 full year was an $81 million gain from the sale of a business in Panama and a $176 million loss resulting from the economic hedge of the purchase price of Fleming prior to its acquisition. The 1999 fourth quarter included interest income from prior years' tax refunds of $62 million and restructuring costs of $23 million. The 1999 full year also included $166 million in gains from sales of nonstrategic assets, of which $95 million was from the sale of One New York Plaza and $71 million was from the sale of branches in Beaumont, Texas, and a special contribution to The Chase Manhattan Foundation of $100 million.

POLICY:

Public securities held by J.P. Morgan Partners are marked-to-market at the quoted public value less liquidity discounts, with the resulting unrealized gains/losses included in the income statement. J.P. Morgan Partners' valuation policy for public securities incorporates the use of these liquidity discounts and price averaging methodologies in certain circumstances to take into account the fact that J.P. Morgan Partners can not immediately realize such public quoted values due to the numerous regulatory, corporate and contractual sales restrictions. Private investments are carried at cost, which is viewed as an approximation of fair value. The carrying value of private investments is adjusted for holdings in which a subsequent investment by an unaffiliated party indicates a valuation in excess of cost and holdings for which evidence of an other-than-temporary decline in value exists.
