Estimated Value:	The estimated value of the notes, when the terms of the notes are set, will not be less than $900.00 per $1,000 principal amount note. For information about the estimated value of the notes, which likely will be lower than the price you paid for the notes, please see the hyperlink above.

Any payment on the notes is subject to the credit risk of JPMorgan Chase Financial Company LLC, as issuer of the notes, and the credit risk of JPMorgan Chase & Co., as guarantor of the notes.

* The actual Upside Leverage Factor will be provided in the pricing supplement and will not be less than 2.15.

 Reflects an Upside Leverage Factor equal to the minimum Upside Leverage Factor set forth herein for illustrative purposes.

Capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in the preliminary pricing supplement.

The "total return" as used above is the number, expressed as a percentage, that results from comparing the payment at maturity per $1,000 principal amount note to $1,000.

The hypothetical returns shown above apply only at maturity. These hypotheticals do not reflect fees or expenses that would be associated with any sale in the secondary market. If these fees and expenses were included, the hypothetical returns shown above would likely be lower.

Selected Risks

- Your investment in the notes may result in a loss. The notes do not guarantee any return of principal.
- Any payment on the notes is subject to the credit risks of JPMorgan Chase Financial Company LLC and JPMorgan Chase & Co. Therefore the value of the notes prior to maturity will be subject to changes in the market's view of the creditworthiness of JPMorgan Chase Financial Company LLC or JPMorgan Chase & Co.
- The benefit provided by the Barrier Amount may terminate on the Observation Date.
- No interest payments.
- You will not have any rights with respect to the commodity futures contracts underlying the Index.
- We may accelerate your notes if a commodity hedging disruption event occurs.
- Commodity futures contracts are subject to uncertain legal and regulatory regimes.
- Prices of commodity futures contracts are characterized by high and unpredictable volatility, which could lead to high and unpredictable volatility in the Index.
- A decision by an exchange on which the commodity futures contracts underlying the Index are traded to increase margin requirements for those futures contracts may affect the level of the Index.
- The notes do not offer direct exposure to commodity spot prices.
- Higher future prices of the commodity futures contracts underlying the Index relative to the current prices of those contracts may affect the level of the Index and the value of the notes.
- Suspension or disruptions of market trading in the commodity markets and related futures markets may adversely affect the level of the Index and, therefore, the value of the notes.
- The notes are linked to an excess return index and not a total return index.

Selected Risks (continued)

- As a finance subsidiary, JPMorgan Chase Financial Company LLC has no independent activities and has limited assets.
- The estimated value of the notes will be lower than the original issue price (price to public) of the notes.
- The estimated value of the notes does not represent future values and may differ from others' estimates.
- The estimated value of the notes is determined by reference to an internal funding rate.
- The value of the notes, which may be reflected in customer account statements, may be higher than the then-current estimated value of the notes for a limited time period.
- Lack of liquidity: J.P. Morgan Securities LLC (who we refer to as JPMS) intends to offer to purchase the notes in the secondary market but is not required to do so. The price, if any, at which JPMS will be willing to purchase notes from you in the secondary market, if at all, may result in a significant loss of your principal.
- Potential conflicts: We and our affiliates play a variety of roles in connection with the issuance of notes, including acting as calculation agent and hedging our obligations under the notes, and making the assumptions used to determine the pricing of the notes and the estimated value of the notes when the terms of the notes are set. It is possible that such hedging or other trading activities of J.P. Morgan or its affiliates could result in substantial returns for J.P. Morgan and its affiliates while the value of the notes declines.
- The tax consequences of the notes may be uncertain. You should consult your tax adviser regarding the U.S. federal income tax consequences of an investment in the notes.

The risks identified above are not exhaustive. Please see "Risk Factors" in the prospectus supplement and the applicable product supplement and "Selected Risk Considerations" in the applicable preliminary pricing supplement for additional information.
