The following is a summary of the terms of the notes offered by the preliminary pricing supplement hyperlinked below.

Summary of Terms

Issuer: JPMorgan Chase Financial Company LLC

Guarantor: JPMorgan Chase & Co.

Indices: Dow Jones Industrial Average®, Nasdaq-100 Index®, and Russell 2000® Index

Pricing Date: July 26, 2023

Observation Date: July 27, 2023

Maturity Date: July 26, 2026

Participation Rate: 130.0%

Maximum Amount: At least $330.00 per $1,000 principal amount note

Additional Amount: $1,000 x Least Performing Index Return x Participation Rate, provided that the Additional Amount will not be greater than the Maximum Amount

Payment At Maturity: If the Final Value of each Index is greater than its Initial Value, you will receive a cash payment, for each $1,000 principal amount note, of $1,000 plus the Additional Amount, which will not be greater than the Maximum Amount.

If the Final Value of one or more Indices is greater than its Initial Value and the Final Value of the other Index or Indices is equal to or less than its Initial Value, your payment at maturity will be calculated as follows:

\[ \text{Payment} = 1,000 \times \text{Least Performing Index Return} \times \text{Participation Rate} \]

In no event, however, will the payment at maturity be less than $950.00 per $1,000 principal amount note.

If the Final Value of any Index is less than its Initial Value, you will lose up to 6.6667% of your principal amount at maturity.

You are entitled to repayment of at least $950.00 per $1,000 principal amount note at maturity, subject to the credit risks of JPMorgan Chase Financial and JPMorgan Chase & Co.

CUSIP: 481333X94

Estimated Value: The estimated value of the notes, when the terms of the notes are set, will not be less than $940.00 per $1,000 principal amount note. For information about the estimated value of the notes, which likely will be lower than the price you pay for the notes, please see the hypothetical return.

Any payment on the notes is subject to the credit risk of JPMorgan Chase Financial Company LLC, as issuer of the notes, and the credit risk of JPMorgan Chase & Co., as guarantor of the notes.

Hypothetical Total Returns

Notes:
- The actual Maximum Amount will be provided in the pricing supplement and will not be less than $330.00 per $1,000 principal amount note.
- Reflects Maximum Amount equal to the minimum Maximum Amount set forth herein, for illustrative purposes.

The "total return" as used above in the numerator, expressed as a percentage, that results from comparing the payment at maturity per $1,000 principal amount note to $1,000.

The hypothetical returns shown above apply only at maturity. These hypothetical returns do not reflect fees or expenses that would be associated with any sale in the secondary market. If these fees and expenses were included, the hypothetical returns shown above likely would be lower.

Selected Risks

- The notes may not pay more than 95.00% of the principal amount at maturity.
- Your maximum gain on the notes is limited by the Maximum Amount.
- Any payment on the notes is subject to the credit risks of JPMorgan Chase Financial Company LLC and JPMorgan Chase & Co. Therefore, the value of the notes prior to maturity will be subject to changes in the market view of the creditworthiness of JPMorgan Chase Financial Company LLC or JPMorgan Chase & Co.
- You are exposed to the risk of decline in the level of each Index.
- Your payment at maturity will be determined by the Lowest Performing Index.
- No interest payments, dividend payments or voting rights.
- JPMorgan Chase & Co. is currently one of the companies that make up the Dow Jones Industrial Average®.
- The notes are subject to the risks associated with non-U.S. securities.
- The notes are subject to the risks associated with small-capization stocks.
- As a finance subsidiary, JPMorgan Chase Financial Company LLC has no independent operations and has limited assets.

Selected Risks (continued)

- The estimated value of the notes will be lower than the original issue price (price to public) of the notes.
- The estimated value of the notes is determined by reference to an internal funding rate.
- The estimated value of the notes does not represent future values and may differ from others’ estimates.
- The value of the notes, which may be reflected in customer account statements, may be higher than the then current estimated value of the notes for a limited time period.
- Lack of liquidity: J.P. Morgan Securities LLC (who we refer to as JPM) intends to offer to purchase the notes in the secondary market but is not required to do so. The price, if any, at which JPM will be willing to purchase notes from you in the secondary market, if at all, may result in a significant loss of your principal.
- Potential conflicts: We and our affiliates play a variety of roles in connection with the issuance of notes, including acting as calculation agent and hedging our obligations under the notes, and making the assumptions used to determine the pricing of the notes and the estimated value of the notes when the terms of the notes are set. It is possible that such hedging or other trading activities of J.P. Morgan or its affiliates could result in substantial returns for J.P. Morgan and its affiliates while the value of the notes decline.
- The tax consequences of the notes may be uncertain. You should consult your tax advisor regarding the U.S. federal income tax consequences of an investment in the notes.

The risks identified above are not exhaustive. Please see “Risk Factors” in the prospectus supplement and the applicable product supplement and “Selected Risk Considerations” in the applicable preliminary pricing supplement for additional information.
