18m EEM Dual Directional Trigger Jump Securities

This document provides a summary of the terms of the securities. Investors must carefully review the accompanying preliminary pricing supplement referenced below, product supplement, underlying supplement, prospectus supplement and prospectus and the “Risk Considerations” on the following page, prior to making an investment decision.

SUMMARY TERMS

Issuer: JPMorgan Chase Financial Company LLC ("JPMorgan Financial") Guarantor: JPMorgan Chase & Co.
ETF Shares: Shares of the iShares® MSCI Emerging Markets ETF (Bloomberg ticker: EEM UP Equity)

Payment at maturity:
If the final share price is greater than or equal to the initial share price, for each $1,000 stated principal amount security:
$1,000 + upside payment

If the final share price is less than the initial share price but greater than or equal to the trigger level, for each $1,000 stated principal amount security:
$1,000 + ($1,000 × absolute share return)

In this scenario, you will receive a 1% positive return on the securities for each 1% negative return on the ETF Shares. In no event will this amount exceed the stated principal amount plus $100.00.

If the final share price is less than the trigger level, for each $1,000 stated principal amount security:
$1,000 × share performance factor

This amount will be less than the stated principal amount of $1,000, and will represent a loss of more than 10%, and possibly all, of your principal amount.

Upside payment: At least $160.00 per $1,000 stated principal amount security (at least 16.00% of the stated principal amount)

Share percent change: (final share price – initial share price) / initial share price

Absolute share return: The absolute value of the share percent change. For example, a -5% share percent change will result in a ±5% absolute share return.

Initial share price: The closing price of the ETF Share on the pricing date
Final share price: The closing price of the ETF Share on the valuation date

Trigger level: 90% of the initial share price

Share performance factor: final share price / initial share price

Stated principal amount: $1,000 per security
Issue price: $1,000 per security

Pricing date: Expected to be December 29, 2023

Original issue date (settlement date): 3 business days after the pricing date

Valuation date: June 30, 2025
Maturity date: July 3, 2025

CUSIP / ISIN: 48134R5T1 / US48134R5T16

Risk Considerations

The risks identified below are not exhaustive. Please see “Risk Factors” in the accompanying prospectus supplement, product supplement and preliminary pricing supplement for additional information.

Risks Relating to the Securities Generally

- The securities do not pay interest or guarantee return of any principal and your investment in the securities may result in a loss.
- Appreciation potential is fixed and limited if the ETF Shares appreciates or remains flat.
- Your maximum downside gain on the securities is limited by the trigger level.
- The securities are subject to the credit risks of JPMorgan Financial and JPMorgan Chase & Co., and any actual or anticipated changes to our or JPMorgan Chase & Co.’s credit ratings or credit spreads may adversely affect the market value of the securities.
- As a finance subsidiary, JPMorgan Financial has no independent operations and has limited assets.
- The benefit provided by the trigger level may terminate on the valuation date.
- Secondary trading may be limited.
- The final terms and estimated valuation of the securities will be provided in the pricing supplement.
- The tax consequences of an investment in the securities are uncertain.

Risks Relating to Conflicts of Interest

- Economic interests of the issuer, the guarantor, the calculation agent, the agent of the offering of the securities and other affiliates of the issuer may be different from those of investors.
- Hedging and trading activities by the issuer and its affiliates could potentially affect the value of the securities.

Risks Relating to the Estimated Value and Secondary Market Prices of the Securities

- The estimated value of the securities will be lower than the original issue price (price to public) of the securities.
- The estimated value of the securities does not represent future values of the securities and may differ from others’ estimates.
- The estimated value of the securities is derived by reference to an internal funding rate.
- The value of the securities as published by J.P. Morgan Securities LLC (and which may be reflected on customer account statements) may be higher than the then-current estimated value of the securities for a limited time period.
- Secondary market prices of the securities will likely be lower than the original issue price of the securities.
- Secondary market prices of the securities will be impacted by many economic and market factors.

Risks Relating to the ETF Shares

- Investing in the securities is not equivalent to investing in the ETF Shares.
- Adjustments to the ETF Shares or the underlying index could adversely affect the value of the securities.
- There are risks associated with the ETF Shares.
- The performance and market value of the ETF Shares, particularly during periods of market volatility, may not correlate with the performance of the underlying index as well as the net asset value per ETF Share.
- The securities are subject to risks associated with securities issued by non-U.S. companies.
- The securities are subject to currency exchange risk.
- The securities entail emerging markets risk.
- Recent executive orders may adversely affect the performance of the ETF Shares.
- Governmental legislative and regulatory actions, including sanctions, could adversely affect your investment in the securities.
- The anti-dilution protection for the ETF Shares is limited.

Tax Considerations

You should review carefully the discussion in the accompanying preliminary pricing supplement under “Additional Information about the securities — Tax considerations” concerning the U.S. federal income tax consequences of an investment in the securities, and you should consult your tax adviser.
